ITINERARY: ENGLAND MYSTICAL RETREAT with KAREN DRUCKER

Day 1. Tuesday, June 23. Arrive England/ Transfer to B & B/ Group Meeting/ Welcome Dinner (D)

Please book your flight to arrive either at London Gatwick Airport by 10:00AM. If you are flying into London Heathrow, please book your air to arrive and transfer to Gatwick by 10:00AM. The group transfer from Gatwick will be at 11:00AM. Board the motor coach for your drive through the English countryside to your hotel, located only 2 miles from Stonehenge. Check in. Rest and start to soak up the energies! Introductory Group Meeting and Sharing Circle with Karen in the later afternoon. Welcome Dinner at a nearby restaurant. Overnight Amesbury.

Day 2. Wednesday, June 24. Avebury World Heritage Site/ Stonehenge (B)

Group meeting with Karen after breakfast. Then depart with Guide Koko Newport to Avebury, a Megalithic Age site whose purpose is believed by some researchers to have been an ancient Druidic initiation site. Explore the enormous earthwork of circles of immense standing stones. Use the lunar and solar ley-lines that cross in this area to connect with these powerful energies in meditation to balance your masculine/feminine energies. Lunch on your own at the restaurant at Avebury. Continue to Stonehenge, one of the world’s most visited sacred sites from the Neolithic Age and Early Bronze Age. Those who are sensitive to the energies in this massive temple claim that the megalithic blocks are constantly radiating tremendous energy. Some say they hold the power of innumerable past Druid ceremonies. One legend maintains that the massive blocks were brought from Ireland and set into place by Merlin, the greatest Druid of them all! Later return to the hotel. Dinner on your own. Overnight Amesbury.

Day 3. Thursday, June 25. Glastonbury Tor/ Chalice Well/ Free Time/ Farewell Dinner (B/D)

A full day in mystical Glastonbury - fabled Avalon, the heart of the Grail myths, “Eden” of the Druids, and the region steeped in Arthurian legend. For centuries it has been the gathering place for those following the ancient Druid and Celtic traditions, as well as one of the holiest places in Christendom. The small town of Glastonbury still preserves its long history and rich traditions, along with a uniquely blended atmosphere of modern times. Arrive and meet your Guide Koko Newport at Glastonbury Tor. Rich in legend and mythological associations, today it’s a popular destination for followers of the Goddess Tradition, as well as Holy Grail theorists, ley-line enthusiasts, and those who make the climb to enjoy its sweeping view of the Somerset countryside. The Tor rises enigmatically above the flat surrounding meadows, and is no ordinary hill! Some say it’s home to the King of the Faeries, Gwyn ap Nudd, the Keeper of the Doorway to the Other World. At the top of The Tor stands the remains of the St. Michel’s Church from the Middle Ages, dedicated to Archangel Michael. Time for group meditation with Karen and Koko. Then, return to the foot of the Tor to visit to the Chalice Well, a pilgrimage site for many thousands of years for those seeking physical and emotional healing. Its iron-red waters were thought in former times to be the blood of Christ emerging from the hidden Grail Chalice. Today the waters of both the Red Spring or Blood Spring at Chalice Well and the adjoining White Spring still have a reputation for their cleansing, healing and transformative qualities. Like pilgrims who have come here since ancient times, you too may receive a healing! From the wellhead at the top of the garden, the first spot you reach when you enter at the bottom of the garden, you will see the vesica pisces-shaped pool that has Chalice Well water flowing into it through a series of flowing steps. (You can purchase a small plastic bottle at the entrance gate to collect some of the healing waters). The vesica pisces symbolizes the Sacred Marriage, the divine union of the male and female energies. Take time to meditate and reflect on your own Divine Union. Then return to Glastonbury for lunch on your own and free time to explore this small town. Perhaps you’d like to visit Glastonbury Abbey, set in a peaceful parkland in the center of town. Built in the Middle Ages, it marks the site where Joseph of Arimathea established the first above-ground church in all of Christendom; it was thus the birthplace of Celtic Christianity. Many people believe that the Holy Thorn tree on the grounds originated from his staff. Graves thought to be those of Arthur and Guinevere have been unearthed here. Return to your hotel. Farewell Dinner at a lovely bistro in nearby Salisbury. Overnight Amesbury.

Day 4. Friday, June 26. Morning transfer to Hilton Hotel to check in for Conference (B)
