There’s Enough

Words: Karen Drucker

2 times. There’s enough time to do all that I want to do.
There’s enough time to “be” and do it all.
Whenever I look inside that’s when I realize,
there’s enough time, there’s enough time, there’s enough time.
Time, there is enough. Time, there is enough.

2 times. There’s enough love to give, there’s enough love to receive.
There’s enough love to give and to receive.
I open my heart, that’s the place to start.
There’s enough love, there's enough love, there's enough love.
Love, there is enough. Love, there is enough.

2 times. There's enough joy in my heart, I choose joy everyday.
There’s enough joy for all of us to shine.
When I allow joy to be, it becomes a part of me.
There's enough joy, there's enough joy, there's enough joy.
Joy, there is enough. Joy, there is enough.

There is enough joy in my heart, I choose joy every day. There's enough joy for all of us to shine. When I allow joy to be it becomes a part of me. There's enough joy, there's enough joy, there's enough joy.

Joy, there is enough. More than enough.
