

Karen Drucker Bio

(Feel free to edit!)

She has been a singing mermaid, a singing casket, and was literally “elevator music” when she was hired to sing and play piano in a moving elevator.

She was the music director for 3 different New Thought churches, and was honored with an Honorary Doctorate of Music for her work within The Centers for Spiritual Living Community, and a “Grace Note” award for her work within the Unity Movement.

She has recorded 15 CDs of her original inspirational music, and her book “Let Go of the Shore: Stories and Songs That Set the Spirit Free” has been a best seller.

Karen sings, speaks and leads workshops at women's retreats, mind-body & health conferences, and various churches around the country. She loves making music, making a difference, and touching hearts.
