

My Money Is Like A Bunny

Words : Karen Drucker

Music: Karen Drucker & John Hoy

“Bunny” concept inspired by Bodi Setchko

Ah, the recession. I have been consciously working on my attitude to keep it positive, while everyone in the media keeps talking about the gloom and doom of the economy. We all know the expression, “Whatever you focus on grows,” so I decided I needed a fun little chant to keep up my attitude during these challenging times. I had sung at a church where the theme of the day was prosperity. The music director, Bodhi Setchko, had made a comment that we needed to “be like a bunny with your money.” That cute visual gave me the inspiration to write this chant.

They say, “You can’t take it with you when you go.” No!

So I’m gonna just enjoy myself and go with the flow.

Chorus: My money is like a bunny it goes forth and multiplies.

I send it out and let it go and it comes back to me in time.

My joy is overflowing, and I know God is my source.

My money is like a bunny it goes forth and multiplies. (Repeat the chorus)

My Money Is Like A Bunny

Words: Karen Drucker
 Music: Karen Drucker & John Hoy

♩ = 90

They say, "You can't take it with you when you go." No! So I'm gonna' just enjoy my-self, go with the flow. My money is like a bun-ny. It goes forth and mul-ti - plies. I send it out and let it go it comes back to me in time. My joy is o - ver - flow - ing. I know God is my source. My money is like a bun - ny, it goes forth and mul - ti - plies. My