The Taz Grout 222 Foundation was started in honor of Pam's 25-year-old daughter Taz, whose life was cut short by a brain aneurysm. In keeping up with the philanthropic work Taz was doing in the world, The 222 Foundation gives a $12,222 grant every February 22 (2/22) to a creative project that rewrites the dream of the modern world from consumption and acquisition to the dream of creativity and self-expression.

If you can't attend the concert but want to support the 222 Foundation you can donate online: Taz Grout's 222 Fund

About the artists:

Pam Grout

Pam Grout is a hopeless romantic who still believes the world is a beautiful place, that people are noble, and that anything is possible. For a living (and she always wonders why people think that's such an important question), she writes books, articles and plays. Pam is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of E-Squared, Thank & Grow Rich and 17 other books, with more than a million books in print in over 40 languages. A prolific travel writer, she contributes to Men's Journal, CNN Travel, LA Times, Huffington Post and People magazine. Pam has also authored three books for National Geographic on meaningful vacations. She has been interviewed by Fast Company, Wall Street Journal, and a countless number of podcasts. Pam Grout

Greg Tamblyn

Greg Tamblyn, NCW (No Credentials Whatsoever), has been a successful singer, songwriter, speaker, and humorist for over 25 years. He combines outstanding audience rapport with an irreverent sense of humor and has a special interest in the relationship of music, laughter, and lifestyle to physical and emotional well-being. Greg's humorous musings on cultural absurdities, as well as his messages of effectiveness, optimism, and service, have garnered him a large international following. Greg has become well known for his inspiring songs about the power of the human spirit, as well as his off-the-wall sendups of modern life, such as "The Shootout at the I'm OK, You're OK Corral," "My Life is a Beer Commercial", and "Type A-Ness". Based for many years in Nashville, he now makes his home in Kansas City and performs throughout the world for a wide variety of groups interested in wellness. Greg Tamblyn

Karen Drucker

Karen's message is all about healing and love – whether singing one of her positive message songs or sharing stories that are funny, inspiring, and heart opening. She is a keynote speaker, women's retreat facilitator, and entertainer who has recorded 22 CDs of her inspirational music. Karen is also the author of the best- selling book "Let Go of the Shore - Songs & Stories to Set The Spirit Free." Her chants and songs are used around the world and often help people deal with illness and loss, or help them fill the need to feel more centered for the day. Karen's intention is to make a difference by using her music to open hearts and share a message of hope, acceptance, and love. Karen Drucker
